

Ground Grow Build

Ground your people in the Faith once delivered to the saints.
Grow your leaders
for ministry and mission.

Church training that plants your people in the rich soil of Bible literacy. Theology that nourishes deep roots in the knowledge and love of God for the work of ministry and mission.

Ministry is demanding. Your people come from varied backgrounds and are in different seasons of life.

How can you ensure a base-level of Bible literacy? Can key leaders get advanced theological training, while serving in ministry?

Grow Program

Theological training to grow your leaders for ministry and mission.

Key leaders study seminary-level online curriculum, overseen by personal tutors. Learning pathways also offer graduate degree completion through our Institute partnerships.

Certificate Track: General Christian Studies

Course One

Old Testament Survey

Introduce members to the culture, context and content of each Old Testament book. Based on A Survey of the Old Testament textbook co-authored by Andrew E. Hill and John H. Walton.

Course Two

New Testament Survey

Get a full introduction to all 27 books of the New Testament. Members get an indispensable overview, and careful attention to each biblical book. Based on A Survey of the New Testament, 5th edition authored by Robert H. Gundry.

Course Three

Biblical Interpretation

A simple and clear introduction to reading Scripture carefully and in context. Members learn how to rightly interpret the Biblical text and apply it. Based on the popular textbook Grasping God's Word by Old Testament scholar J. Daniel Hays and New Testament expert J. Scott Duvall

Course Four

Systematic Theology 1

An introduction to the doctrines of God's Word, God, and humanity. Based on Wayne Grudem's Systematic Theology.

Course Five

Systematic Theology 2

Learn about the doctrines of Christ, the Holy Spirit, the church, and the future. Based on Wayne Grudem's Systematic Theology.

Course Six

Elective: Church History or Historical Theology

Church History:

An introduction to church history, in the context of social, economic, and intellectual history of the broader world.

Historical Theology:

Rather than following the history of Christianity and presenting various doctrines as they arise, this course traces the development of vital Christian theology topic by topic.
